A Message from the Pastor

Are you ready for a great time? The Church's Annual Valentine's Day Banquet is being held Wednesday the 13th of February. This year, for the very first time, we will be entertained by a comedian...well, actually two comedians. Richard and Sheri Bright are described this way:

The Brights are branded as the top up and coming comedy couple! This funny husband/wife duo, combine tag-team humor with their real-life hilarious stories! They share the fun w/church comedy date nights across the U.S.! Richard and Sheri are extremely transparent about their own marriage; they fearlessly share the ups and downs of marital bliss and the challenges of blending a family.

They love marriage & delight in helping couples put the fun back in dysFUNCTIONal! This is going to be an awesome night!!!!

I'm not only excited about the entertainment, I am excited about doing something new. "Doing Something New" is going to be a theme for 2019. We're going to take those things we do well and see if we can do them better. We are going to take those things that we don't do well and either revamp them or drop them. We're gonna start something new! This is going to be a great year!

To help us, I have been asking you all for the past couple of weeks to sign-up to be part of our new "Community Engagement Team." This team is going to lead us in implementing new strategies to engage our community. I can't wait to see what ideas come from them!

Acts 1:8

⁸ But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth."

This verse describes our church's call to four different mission fields. We are diligently working on efforts in each of those fields. Being a fully engaged missional church is not easy. It cannot be done in a church that sees Sunday worship as the only requirement of being a Christian. To be a fully engaged missional church takes people who are committed to taking the gospel to the lost. For us to be effective in Seabrook, Texas, Washington and Africa we ALL must give sacrificially of our time and resources.

I am so glad that I am a member of church that is filled with Christ-followers who are willing to embrace God's Great Commission! Please pray about your personal role in our church's out-reach efforts.

God bless, Pastor Rob

February 2019 Lamplight Anxious for Nothing

Maybe it's just me, but have you noticed a growing level of competition between insurance company advertisements? It seems that the various ad campaigns are becoming funnier every day.

My personal favorite is the new State Farm Commercial. It is so clever!

The commercial fades into the scene of a multiple-vehicle accident inside a tunnel. An accident victim calls their insurance agent to report a "big fender-bender," and his agent says, "Don't worry, State Farm's got you covered." As the commercial continues, it becomes apparent that a helium truck is involved because everyone's voice has become increasingly squeaky. Two police officers arrive at the end of the commercial and with very squeaky voices, they say, "Everybody remain calm... no need to panic." Then, as the commercial fades out you hear State Farm's slogan... Here to make life go right. The commercial made me laugh, so of course I had to rewind and watch it several more times.

State Farm is known for their funny commercials, but as mentioned before, there is solid competition. Farmers Insurance puts out their share of clever commercials, as well. Their slogan... "We know a thing or two, because we've seen a thing or two..." blends well with their Hall of Claims ads that highlight unusual claims like "Mer-Mutts" (a dog turns on the kitchen faucet and floods the house) or "Vengeful-Vermin" (squirrels hurl pine-cones at a parked car).

There are a few other companies – Geico and Progressive – that put out funny commercials, but right now State Farm is the one that makes me grin.

Insurance companies are in the promise business. We pay the premiums and they promise to take care of us when things go awry. The State Farm agent's promise – "Don't worry, State Farm's got you covered" – sounds good to anyone who has a State Farm policy. Their slogan rings true... It does make life go right when you don't have to worry about the cost of fixing the fender-benders of life.

I may have my share of insurance policies, but overall, I prefer God's divine protection. No matter what comes my way, I can count on God's promises. There is no need to worry, because God has me covered.

Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice! Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near. Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. ~ Philippians 4:4-7

He knows more than a thing or two, He makes my life go right, and He's got the whole world in His hands!

Remember this... you are loved, and you are always in my prayers.

In Christ, Cheryl
